SALARY

Instead of Fees is Sought by Federal Court Clerks in This State.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 8.— Charles B. Kefauver, clerk of the district court for the Northern district, and T. M. Keatley, clerk of the district court for the Southern district, have been in Washington several days trying to have passed a bill which has been introduced placing clerks of courts on salary.
At present they are paid under a fee system. Accepting a compromise in the House which cuts the pay down slightly, they believe the bill will now be passed and that they will be given a fixed salary at about the same figure as that paid to the United States marshal and the collector of internal revenue. They are occupying these positions for life and the change of administration will make no difference in their offices.

ENGINEER

Whose Duty It Was to Drive the Imperial Train is Dead Now.

PARIS, Feb. 8.—There has just died in Switzerland the engineer whose duty it had been to drive the special imperial train that carried Emperor Nicholas on his journeyings in Russia. He was possessed of a considerable fortune, a result of the largess of his master.

Although a Swiss, Dominique Hof had been in the service of the Russian railways for forty years. During the last fifteen of them he had driven the emperor's private trains from Moscow to Odessa and to other places in Russia. Hof, who retired a few months ago, would never say more of his experiences than hint at singular dangers he had risked, and the immense bribes that he had refused from revolutionists and from members of the secret police in their desire to test his uprightness.

If you've got a patience-trying boarding house, answer some ads in the Telegram before your appetite is seriously impaired.
